

ITeens Privacy Policy & Terms of Use

Updated: May 18, 2020

By using our services, platforms and advice, the user accepts these terms:

Although we work to ensure our video-conferences are secure and safe by adopting recommended procedures and restrictions, no video-conferencing platform is fully secure and safe.

By participating in our video-conferences, the user understands that there are risks of “Zoom-bombers,” hackers, and others. The user understands ITeens cannot guarantee our video-conferences will be free of these risks. Zoom sessions will also be recorded for quality assurance and training purposes.

By participating in our video-conferences & our services, the user assumes all such risks, and releases and waives ITeens from any liability for any claims or damage that might occur.